Supported Employment Lending Library

The Supported Employment Consultation and Training Center Lending Library
Supporting the employment of individuals with serious mental illness
In affiliation with Ball State University Libraries

Checking Out Materials
Checking out the resources is easy to do! There are over 150 books, DVDs, videos, and manuals housed at the SECT Center Lending Library available to you.

STEP 1
To learn which resources are available, go to www.bsu.edu/library and click on CardCat.

STEP 2
Enter the keyword “SECT Center” and a listing of the materials will appear.

STEP 3
Write down the title and author of the item(s) that you would like to borrow.

STEP 4
Call or visit your local library and inform the librarian that you would like to obtain the material through InterLibrary loan from Ball State University; or, you may obtain the materials directly from Ball State University.

Note: VHS and DVDs are available for viewing at Ball State University Libraries only

Frequently Asked Questions...
Q. Who may use the lending library?
A. The lending library is a resource that is available to anyone in the state of Indiana who is interested in learning more about entering/reentering the workforce or supporting individuals with disabilities who want to work.

Q. Is there a cost to check out the materials?
A. There is no cost to you to check out the materials. You will need to have either a library card or a state identification (e.g., driver’s license or state identification card.) Standardized library fees may be incurred if materials are late, damaged, or lost.

Q. How long may the materials be checked out?
A. Your local library will determine how long you are able to keep the materials. Ask your librarian for more details.
Q. How long will it take for the material to arrive at my local library?
A. Each library is different. Most libraries will receive the material within a couple of weeks.

Q. Can I recommend specific publications to be added to the library?
A. Yes, if there are items you would like to recommend for the SECT Center to consider purchasing, please go to the SECT Center website, www.sectcenter.org, click on lending library’s frequently asked questions, and submit the title and author of the book.

Q. Can I donate materials to be added to the library?
A. Yes, if there are items that you would like to donate to the lending library, please contact the SECT Center at (765) 641-8293.